MEMORANDUM FOR: Lieutenant General James A. Williams, US Army
Director, Defense Intelligence Agency

FROM:

[REDACTED]
Director, Intelligence Community Staff

25X1

SUBJECT:

Caribbean Intelligence Steering Group [REDACTED]

25X1

1. The newly formed Caribbean Intelligence Steering Group is composed of principals and high-level representatives of State, CIA, NSA, DIA, and the JCS. It is chaired by the Director of the Intelligence Community Staff, and will report to the DCI, keeping the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff, informed. It will ensure that a cohesive and effective, total intelligence program supports US interests in the Caribbean/Central American region and that the Intelligence Community is adhering to pertinent National Security Decision Directives. [REDACTED]

25X1

2. It is requested that you develop a concept by 17 January 1982, which will allow for the proper interactions between the Caribbean Intelligence Working Group and the Steering Group. [REDACTED]
